FACTSHEET

FAFÁ ISLAND LOCATION

Fafá Island Resort is located on an 18 acres palm covered offshore island 7 km north of Nuku'alofa, the capital of Tonga. The island is guarded by a coral reef ensuring safe swimming and snorkeling in crystal clear blue waters. Deserted sandy beaches invite you to relax and lie in the sun.

ACCOMMODATION

There are only 13 fales (guest bungalows) on Fafá Island which means you won't be meeting too many people. From our 6 Deluxe and 7 Superior fales it is only a few steps to the beach and from the patio you have a breath taking view of the endless Pacific Ocean. The fales are situated far apart from each other to ensure utmost privacy. They are built in traditional Tongan style with soaring high ceilings and natural materials: coconut palm poles, coconut thatched walls, roof with wooden shingles. They have a sitting area and a walk in wardrobe. The bathroom is semi-open with the shower in a private flower garden. They are equipped with ceiling fan, refrigerator, a hammock and beach beds.

The Superior fales have a king size bed or twin beds.

5 superior fales have an extra room with either a single bed, twin beds or a bunk bed to accommodate families with small children.

The Deluxe fales are much larger in size and more exclusive than the Superior fales. They have a big platform with a king size bed.

3 Deluxe fales have an extra building connected with the main building by a large veranda. This building contains an extra room with 2 beds, a walk in wardrobe and a semi open bathroom, perfectly suitable for families with children or friends travelling together providing adequate privacy.

Two Deluxe Fales are specially designed for Honeymooners. They both have an additional large king size bed, one in a loft and the other in a separate fale with the most beautiful view over the Pacific Ocean.
